

Women Artists of the West

Women's Fine Art in Numerous Subjects & Mediums . . . Across the United States

Susan Haskins

Communicating a mood and creating an interesting piece is what challenges me as an artist. Painting en plein air with oil paint excites me! The compositional possibilities, along with the color, lighting, textures, and atmosphere are what make working from life so wonderful to me. There is no substitute. Before focusing on oil painting, I've worked as a commercial artist and photo finish operator. Expressionism would best describe my style of painting.

A Denver native, Susan holds a Bachelor of Science from UNC and has studied art in Florence, Italy. Her post-graduate studies have been with Mark Daily, Kim English, Ron Riddick, Skip Whitcomb, and Rich Hilker. She has achieved two Best of Show Awards and several first, second, and merit awards.
